STANISLAUS JUNIORS TO PRESENT "ARSENIC AND OLD LACE"

"Arsenic and Old Lace" a play in three acts by Joseph Kesselring, will be presented by the Stanislaus Junior class May 15 and 16. Curtain time is 8 p. m. sharp.

The play will be presented at the Boardman Avenue Playhouse through the courtesy of the Board of Directors of the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre.

Members of the cast include Albert Thompson, Murray Butler, Anthony Silece, Cricket Bradford, Neil Fick, Mike Pagano, Robert Tessier, Andre Robichaux, Dick Kammer, Wayne Windsor, Robert Schonberg, Chris MacGowan, and Dennis Grey.

Directors of the play are Brother Adrian, S. C., and Brother Celestine, S. C., while Ricky Stechmann is the technical director.

Members of the stage crew include Frank Tugwell and John Parrott, stage managers; Curtis Matherne, set designer; and Brother Marvin, S. C., and James Landry, set construction.

For those unfamiliar with the plot of Arsenic and Old Lace, the play concerns two elderly aunts who live in Brooklyn, New York. They become involved in murder and mayhem and lend to a most hilarious play.

Admission for the evening performances is 50c for children and $1.00 for adults. Tickets may be purchased at the College or at the door.

MRS. C. GAGNON DIED SUDDENLY

Mrs. Christine Beckman Gagnon, 52, died unexpectedly at 8:15 a. m. Wednesday, May 13, at Hancock General Hospital shortly after her arrival.

Mrs. Gagnon moved to Bay St. Louis from Brookhaven, La. She was a former resident of New Orleans and a member of the Lutheran Church of the Peace and the Lutheran Women's Circle.

Survivors are her husband, Walter R. Gagnon Sr., two sons, Walter Gagnon Jr., and Larry Gagnon, Bay St. Louis; her mother, Mrs. Gleason Fabre Beckman, a sister, Mrs. Edith Moultrie, Jackson, La.; and three daughters, Mrs. Barbara Ethridge and Mrs. Phyllis Altmouth, Jackson, La. Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. Friday from the First Baptist Church, Bay St. Louis. Burial will be in the First Baptist Church cemetery. The Rev. Paul Strowel, pastor, will officiate.

Kergosien and Son announced plans of the Girardeau for the historic O. J. house and lot in downtown St. Louis.

Existing Colonial mansion, on a Spanish land grant, restored and remodeled. Ultimate development will be 40 apartments, while the remodeling of the house provide seven luxury apartments.

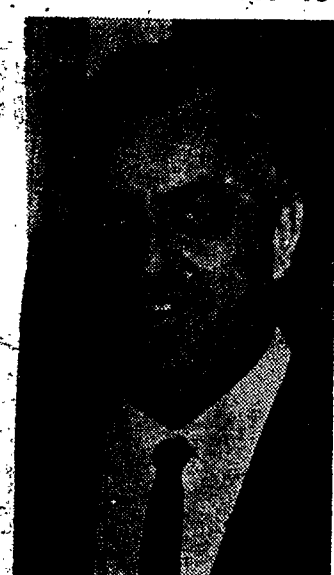

Grouping of the additions building, combined with existing structure, will form yards with galleries overlooking a swimming pool and recreation area.

Henry G. Grimbail, New Orleans architect, in charge of the design, stated the existing live oaks and landscaping will be retained. All plans seem to conform with the proposed zoning ordinance, and the Mayor and Councilmen expressed approval, the Kergosien firm reported.

The proposed project is in walking distance of the shopping area, schools, churches and beach.

The property is listed exclusively with L. L. Kergosien and Son and Mitchell Realty jointly.

Begin Work On Office Building

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. - Pearce and Gresham, Decatur, Ala., will begin construction immediately on a six-story office building at the NASA-Marshall Space Flight Center.

The Decatur firm yesterday received a $2,276,101 contract for building the third structure in the MSCF headquarters complex on Rideout Road, Pearce and Gresham is presently completing the second of the three buildings, also a six-story office building.

Some 650 Marshall Center technical and supporting personnel will have offices in the building. The structure, which will be 218 feet, will have outside walls of steel and glass. It will have some 109,000 square feet of floor space. MSCF's nine-story central laboratory and office building is the largest building in the three structure complex. The central lab was completed last July. The complex's second structure, an engineering and administration building, will be completely occupied this month.

The new building was designed by Wyatt C. Hedrick, Fort Worth, Texas. Hudgins, Thompson, Ball and Associates, Oklahoma City, Okla., adapted the building for the site under the direction of the MSCF Facilities and Design Office.

TO MEET MAY 18

Veterans of Barracks 2537, World War I, will meet at 7 p. m. May 18 at the American Legion Home. Members are requested to attend.

LOCAL BAPTIST CHURCH TO OBSERVE RADIO-TV SUNDAY, MAY 17

The First Baptist Church 141 Main Street, will join several hundred other Southern Baptist churches throughout the United States in observing Baptist Radio-Television Sunday on May 17.

The Rev. Emory B. Green, Pastor, announced today that his church plans special activities under the theme, "Let the earth hear," recognizing the worldwide ministry of the denomination's Radio-Television Commission.

In keeping with the global theme, a 12-minute tape-recorded program narrated by Dr. Paul M. Stevens, director of the agency located in Fort Worth, Texas, and featuring home and foreign missionaries, will be a highlight of the 9:45 a. m. Sunday School opening assembly program. The tape also will present a brief message from Billy Graham about the valuable opportunity for Christian witnessing which is offered by radio and television.

Thirteen weekly radio programs and a filmed television series are produced and distributed by the Commission to 1400 stations in 50 states and 35 foreign countries. These programs have an estimated weekly listening and viewing audience of 50 million.

The Radio-TV Commission also produces several documentary and inspirational programs each year for all three major networks. For instance, an hour-long special on the life and travels of the Apostle Paul will be telecast nationwide on May 31 by NBC-TV.

Southern Baptist weekly radio and television programs received in this area and their broadcast times and stations are: "The Answer" on Biloxi's WLOX-TV at 2:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon and "Master Control" on WLOX-TV at 5:30 p. m. Sunday day evening.

LOCAL SPORTSMAN

TEDDY STECHMANN

Teddy has been a fisherman all his life using from a slaughter pole to rod and reel and lastly a fly rod. His favorite sport used to be catching red fish. Now it is catching any kind of fish. Besides fishing and working, he is a Scoutmaster with an active troop which takes up a lot of his time. Keep up the good work, Teddy.

Dr. Julius J. Bosch and his wife "Terry" from New Orleans spent the weekend at their home in Waveland. Both Doc and his wife are ardent fishermen. Terry was bragging about the big bull croaker she caught off the seawall. She said it was (8"-7") so big, mostly bull we think.

They will be over this weekend and expect to get in some real fishing.

A lot of benefits for good causes are held hereabouts from time to time. The one which should be tops will be the benefit at Trapani's Knock Knock next Monday night, May 18th at 8:00 p. m. sponsored by the Bay St. Louis Volunteer Fire Department. Yep, we are going to have another fire engine and you can help the cause with a small donation which you can send to the Volunteer Fire Dept. C/o of our local Postmaster. If you don't care to attend the benefit, all donations will be gladly received. Let's help protect our homes.

Hank Evans caught a 3 1/2 pound fresh water catfish in one of his crab traps. The fish was cleaned pronto and as Hank put it, made an excellent meal for him and the madam.

Reports came in that some nice frogs were caught this past week. They were large and hit the spot when it came to eating them.

Hard crabs are beginning to come in and are being caught in nets and traps. The crabs are full of meat, large in size. Along the seawall and off piers the crabs are easily caught and make a delicious meal when boiled or

J. HENRY LAROSE, 83 DIED SUNDAY

Joseph Henry Larose Sr., 83, died at 12:45 p. m. Sunday, May 10, after a long illness.

A native of New Orleans, he had resided in Bay St. Louis for about 45 years, he was a member of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

A retired salesman for Kellogg Company and of W. A. McDonald and Sons, he was the widower of Mrs. Margaret Macheca Larose.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday from Riemann's put in gumbo.

Luke Elliott, Perre Quintini and yours truly made a large catch of bass and perch over the weekend. They were caught on the fly rod.

Most of our streams are clearing rapidly and by the end of this week some good fishing should be had. Jordan River should be in good shape as well as local bayous most anywhere.

Glad to hear that Alfred Copolich is back to normal after a short spell of sickness. You just can't keep a good man down.

Fahey-Whitfield Funeral Home followed by religious services at 9:45 a. m. in Our Lady of the Gulf Church with interment at 2 p. m. in Metairie Cemetery, New Orleans.

Mr. Larose is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Larose Buckley, Bay St. Louis; a brother Dr. J. Browne Larose Sr., New Orleans; five grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

$58 MILLION IN CONSTRUCTION FOR YEAR STARTING JULY 1

WASHINGTON - Senator John Stennis announced that construction in the amount of $58,891,500 at the Mississippi Testing Operations in Hancock and Pearl River Counties has been authorized by the Senate Space Committee for the next fiscal year beginning July 1.

Stennis, a member of the Committee said the 1965 budget for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) was approved today.

The President's budget request for the Mississippi operation was $61,991,000, however the House had reduced that figure by $6,199,000.

Today, the Senate Committee restored $3,099,500 of the House reduction for a net authorization for the Mississippi Test Operation of $58,891,500.

The big rocket engine testing site in South Mississippi has been under construction for the past two years and is scheduled to be in full operation by 1965.

Today's Senate action approved the authorization of the money for the construction program for the coming year. Actual appropriations will follow later.

Total NASA funds obligated for MTO since the project was announced in the Fall of 1961 is about $250,000,000 but the over all cost to complete the project is estimated at a half billion dollars.

The site will include more than 140,000 acres, of which 13,500 acres in the Fee Zone is being purchased outright. The other 128,500 acres make up the Buffer Zone on which easements are being acquired.

NO FINES
Mrs. Katherine Wilson, librarian, City-County Memorial Library, said fines will not be charged on books returned from May 13 through May 20.

cut under the law. Unless adjustments are made, however, under withholding will result in some instances in 1964. It should be noted that in 1965, the tax rate will drop further but the 14 percent withholding rate will remain the same.

AMENDMENT TO PREVENT VIOLENCE AND DEMONSTRATIONS

(BY SENATOR JOHN STENNIS)
WASHINGTON - Amid numerous press reports that Mississippi will again be "invaded" this summer by racial zealots and imported agitators, I have introduced an amendment to the civil rights bill making it a federal crime to cross State lines for the purpose of violating State laws which would help prevent violence and demonstrations provoked by the so-called "Freedom Riders."

The word has gone out by press releases and speeches in various parts of the country that Mississippi is to become the "whipping boy" again this summer.

The Stennis amendment would strike at the very heart of the Freedom Rider movement, and it fixes a penalty of $500 maximum fine or five years in prison, or both.

These groups of agitators travel into a State for the express purpose of violating local laws.

My amendment is designed to prevent this disrespect for law and order.

A classic example of this sort of wanton conduct was reported in the nationwide press recently when Mrs. Malcolm Peabody, 72-year old mother of Massachusetts Governor Endicott Peabody, announced in advance that she was going to Florida for the purpose of getting arrested and jailed. She and seven other persons, five of them Negroes, sat in a motel dining room in St. Augustine, Florida, and were promptly arrested and jailed.

The actions of Mrs. Peabody and others like her are nothing more than open and flagrant disregard for law and order which State and local authorities have established.

In addition, I have introduced and co-sponsored other amendments to the civil rights bill. One amendment would hold the Federal government liable for damages and losses sustained by a business because of forced integration under the civil rights bill.

LEGAL NOTICE
Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County at its office in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi until 10:00 o'clock A. M. on Monday, June 1, 1964, for furnishing the County for use by the Hancock County Mosquito Control Commission, the following:

5% Paris Green - Vermiculite Pellets.
Dibrom 14
Ortho Additive.
Malathion.
Thiosperse.
No. 2 Fuel Oil.

Our detailed specifications should be studied before submitting bids.

Complete specifications may be had upon application to the Mosquito Control Commission Office in the former Harrison County Health Center Building on 24th Avenue and 17th Street, Gulfport, Mississippi, or by writing the Commission, P. O. Box 101, Gulfport, Mississippi, or from the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

All bids must show a State Auditor's License Number or carry the sworn statement as required by law.

Bids must be on file with the Clerk of this Board on or before 10:00 o'clock A. M. on Monday, June 1, 1964.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Given under my hand and seal of office this 5th day of May, 1964.

NO Pictures?

Don't be sad, sweetheart. The book has no pictures, but it's a wonderful story . . . the most wonderful story in the world! You'll hear about it in Sunday School, and when you're older you'll be able to read it for yourself.

Her eager young mind is ready to learn, and she'll find it easy to understand the glorious truths of the Bible if they are presented to her in pictures, stories and songs. The happy hours she spends in Sunday School could be the beginning of an unshakable Christian faith that will sustain her all her life.

You feel that your children deserve the best. Give them an early introduction to the beauty of the Christian religion . . . give them the security of a loving Christian home . . . and know that these are the greatest gifts you could provide.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a source of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
